Sponsored by: Happy Mother's Day

A Prayer for Mother's Day originally written by Amy Young.

I want you to know I'm praying for you if you are like Tamar, struggling with infertility, or a miscarriage.

I want you to know that I'm praying for you if you are like Rachel, counting the women among your family and friends who year by year and month by month get pregnant, while you wait.

I want you to know I'm praying for you if you are like Naomi, and have known the bitter sting of a child's death.

I want you to know I am praying for you if you are like Joseph and Benjamin, and your Mom has died.

I want you to know that I am praying for you if your relationship with your Mom was marked by trauma, abuse, or abandonment, or she just couldn't parent you the way you needed.

I want you to know I am praying for you if you've been like Moses' mother and put a child up for adoption, trusting another family to love your child into adulthood.

I want you to know I am praying for you if you've been like Pharaoh's daughter, called to love children who are not yours by birth (and thus the mother who brought that child into your life, even if it is complicated).

I want you to know I am praying for you if you, like many, are watching (or have watched) your mother age, and disappear into the long goodbye of dementia or Alzheimers.

I want you to know that I am praying for you if you, like Mary, are pregnant for the very first time and waiting breathlessly for the miracle of your first child.

I want you to know that I am praying for you if your children have turned away from you, painfully closing the door on relationship, leaving you holding your broken heart in your hands. And like Hagar, now you are mothering alone.

I want you to know that I am praying for you if motherhood is your greatest joy and toughest struggle all rolled into one.

I want you to know that I am praying for you if you are watching your child battle substance abuse, a public legal situation, mental illness, or another situation which you can merely watch unfold.

I want you to know that I am praying for you if you like so many women before you do not wish to be a mother, are not married, or in so many other ways do not fit into societal norms.

I want you to know that I am praying for you if you see yourself reflected in all, or none of these stories.

This mother's day, wherever and whoever you are, we walk with you. You are loved. You are seen. You are worthy.

Prayer Practice for the month of May

Keep a prayer journal. You may want to do have four categories such as New Prayer Requests, Ongoing Prayer Requests, Prayers Answered, and Prayers of Thanks. (This is fun to do for a longer period of time so you can see how your prays have been answered, it's not always as you request or think it should be.)

Submit a Prayer Request: Please fill out the blue prayer request sheet in the sanctuary and place in the offering plate or email tlchwelca@gmail.com or call the church office and leave a message 715-796-2788.

—WELCOME GUESTS—

Connection Cards are located in the chair racks. Guests and invited to fill these out if they would like more information about the ministry at Trinity or would like the pastor to contact them. You may place them in the offering plate or give to the pastor.
