All Saints Day—Next Sunday, November 1st

On All Saints Sunday we recognize and give thanks for all the Saints who have gone before us. Please submit by paper or email or a phone message any names of loved ones that have passed since the last All Saints Day. We will include their names in prayers on that Sunday. If you are unable to submit them ahead of time, we will have extra slips of paper and tealight candles ready on that day for you.

Confirmation/Bible And Me—NOTE TIME and LOCATION

We are now meeting at 6:00 p.m. to make it a little earlier evening for everyone. Parents/guardians can stay, or come back at 7:00 to pick up your child. For the month of October the students from Wilson and Trinity will meet here at Trinity, with location to be determined after that. Youth from 5th-8th grades: It is not too late to join us!

Quilts

Starting November 2nd and going until November 23rd, the quilts that the women have been working hard to create will be displayed on the chairs in the sanctuary. They are for sale at $40.00 each. The money raised will go into the general fund to help the church pay its bills. Please make the checks out to Trinity and put quilts in the memo line. After you purchase your quilt, you may take it home. Thank you, the quilters

Stewardship online workshop

The ELCA is excited to offer a free learning opportunity to help churches in this era of financial challenges. “Stewardship Beyond the Season: Practical Strategies for Year-round Engagement” is an online webinar offered this Tuesday, October 27th at 1:00 p.m. It will offer practical strategies for year-round stewardship activities, and tips to help strengthen connection and participation in the life of the church. Stewardship is more than a fall appeal; it’s rooted in gratitude for God’s grace and helping people discover how to use their time, talents, and resources for doing God’s work in the world. It will offer some technology tips and tools as well.

The Bible in One Year

Find all the podcasts at www.enterthebible.org. The latest installment is on the book of Ephesians. What is the book of Ephesians really about? Dr. Sarah Hinlicky Wilson calls it an album of covers of the Apostle Paul’s greatest hits.

Sarah takes on the big questions. Who wrote Ephesians? Was it even written to the Ephesians? Why did ancient authors write in a famous teacher’s name? You’ll also get a quick Ephesians summary, chapter by chapter, and a fresh look at the hardest passages in chapters 5 and 6: husbands and wives, children and fathers, slaves and masters.

Prayer Requests: Prayers for the homebound, those in Care Centers, and others:
Friends and family of Cindy Fritz, June Lindquist, Sue Bork,
Bill Jones, Jerry Afdahl, Beth Monson

Prayer Point: Prayer of St. Francis of Assisi (Prayer for Peace)

Lord, make me an instrument of your peace: where there is hatred, let me sow love; where there is injury, pardon; where there is doubt, faith; where there is despair, hope; where there is darkness, light; where there is sadness, joy. O divine Master, grant that I may not so much seek to be consoled as to console, to be understood as to understand, to be loved as to love. For it is in giving that we receive, it is in pardoning that we are pardoned, and it is in dying that we are born to eternal life. Amen.

Spiritual Practice: The Star Word of the Week is "peace." If we look at the parables we have been hearing from Jesus the last few Sundays, the people have not chosen peace. We as followers of God should choose peace. Peace so we can all prosper and have security. Peace so we can show love to our neighbors. If we do not choose to share the peace, but instead hold grudges and judge others, then our Lord will judge us for what we have done. If we do not forgive others, then our Lord will not forgive us for the sins we have committed. We should instead try to reconcile with those who have wronged us, and listen to each other. So we can have love, understanding, and peace.

To Submit a Prayer Request: Please fill out the blue prayer request sheet found in the sanctuary and place in the offering plate, or email: tlchwelca@gmail.com, or call the church office and leave a message at 715-796-2788.
