All Saints Day

On All Saints Sunday we recognize and give thanks for all the Saints who have gone before us and who have newly been baptized into the family of God. We will include their names in prayers today. If you were unable to submit them ahead of time, please fill out any names on the extra slips of paper provided today and they will be included.

The Bible in One Year

Find all the podcasts at www.enterthebible.org. Choose Resources, Podcasts, and Bible in a Year. The latest installment is on the book of Philippians. We welcome New Testament scholar Dr. F. Scott Spencer to explore the book of Philippians. Paul wrote this short letter from prison to a beloved congregation in a Roman colony. It is both a prison letter and a heartfelt thank you note. Scott explains why Paul's "secret of life" is no self-help formula. Instead, it is a living relationship with Christ, summed up in Philippians 1:21: "For to me, living is Christ." Scott also plays Bible Bingo with koinonia, grateful joy, longing, salvation, and the messenger Epaphroditus. He walks through the Christ hymn in Philippians 2 and beloved verses on peace and strength. He shares how the book of Philippians has carried him through a lifelong struggle with anxiety. Finally, he reflects on "thin places," where the boundary between heaven and earth grows thin. Join us to discover why this letter still speaks with such power today.

Prayer Ministry

Prayer Requests: Prayers for the homebound, those in Care Centers, and others:
Sue Bork, Bill Jones, Jerry Afdahl, Beth Monson

Prayer Point: Prayer of St. Francis of Assisi (Prayer for Peace)
Lord, make me an instrument of your peace: where there is hatred, let me sow love; where there is injury, pardon; where there is doubt, faith; where there is despair, hope; where there is darkness, light; where there is sadness, joy. O divine Master, grant that I may not so much seek to be consoled as to console, to be understood as to understand, to be loved as to love. For it is in giving that we receive, it is in pardoning that we are pardoned, and it is in dying that we are born to eternal life. Amen.

Spiritual Practice: The Star Word of the Week is "peace." If we look at the parables we have been hearing from Jesus the last few Sundays, the people have not chosen peace. We as followers of God should choose peace. Peace so we can all prosper and have security. Peace so we can show love to our neighbors. If we do not choose to share the peace, but instead hold grudges and judge others, then our Lord will judge us for what we have done. If we do not forgive others, then our Lord will not forgive us for the sins we have committed. We should instead try to reconcile with those who have wronged us, and listen to each other. So we can have love, understanding, and peace.

To Submit a Prayer Request: Please fill out the blue prayer request sheet found in the sanctuary and place in the offering plate, or email: tlchwelca@gmail.com, or call the church office and leave a message at 715-796-2788.
